

RECALL NOTICE

Hearth & Home Technologies® Recalls Quadra-Fire® Mt. Vernon E2 Pellet Stoves and Inserts

Hazard: In instances where units are not maintained per the cleaning requirements outlined in the owner's manual, fuel can back up and create unstable combustion, resulting in built-up pressure inside the firebox. This may lead to glass breakage.

Recalled Product: Mt. Vernon E2 pellet stoves and inserts sold from February 2014 to January 2015 by Quadra-Fire®.

| Brand        | Product Types                | Serial Numbers              |
|--------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| Quadra-Fire® | Mt. Vernon E2 Pellet Stoves  | 00705800001 to 00705801411  |
| Quadra-Fire® | Mt. Vernon E2 Pellet Inserts | 007059000001 to 00705900782 |

Incidents/Injuries: None reported

Remedy: Consumers should turn the small blue dial on their stove or insert to the -4 position and follow the daily maintenance requirements in the manual for the Mt. Vernon E2 pellet stove or insert. They should also contact the retailer where the unit was purchased to arrange for a free inspection and installation of an enhanced control board. The firm's dealers have already contacted known purchasers.
