

OUTDOOR Fireplace Guide

Bring the Indoors Out

Spending time outdoors supports a life that just feels better – encouraging calm, connection and a more balanced pace. When designed with intention, outdoor spaces can offer the same comfort and usability as the rooms inside your home.

Hearth & Home Technologies offers outdoor fireplaces that help bridge that connection. With gas, wood and electric options, there's a way to bring warmth, structure and purpose to any type of outdoor area, expanding the square footage of your home and enjoying fire the way it was meant to be.
